Networking with FACET at the 399 Bar

Join FACET members and tourism industry colleagues at the 399 Bar, for our second in a series of networking evenings.

A triumph of casual cool and one of the original small bars, 399 is built for comfort, a bar to truly “lounge” in with soft lighting and eclectic tunes that don’t overwhelm the conversation. Flip flops and tattoos reside comfortably with suits and ties, adorned by young and old. Handcrafted cocktails are the potion of choice and these are complemented by a vast craft beer and cider list, plus some unusual quality wines. They offer an ever changing range of 399 tapas, or you can order food from surrounding restaurants and have it delivered!

Co-owner Peter Palmer will share with you an insight into the boutique bar business and has generously supported the event with the provision of finger food.

So come along and enjoy a drink with your tourism friends at the 399 Bar.

FACET is delighted to partner with the Small Bar Association of WA to offer this series of free tourism networking evenings and showcase some of Perth’s innovate and unique small bars.
