Art Gallery WA

Discover a passionate film-maker admire a screen legend
celebrate a local hero

Film legend Heath Ledger was a charismatic movie star who pushed the boundaries of acting in his iconic roles. This unique exhibition has been curated by the WA Museum in partnership with Art Gallery WA. From his teenage years in WA to his final role in The Imaginarium of doctor Parnassus (2009), the exhibition follows a career driven by the actor's passion for creativity.

On display for the first time, will be Ledger's research journals revealing the actor's deep commitment to his profession. Ledger's celebrity status is reflected in portraits by noted international photographers such as Karin Catt, Platon and Bruce Weber.

A Life in Pictures will celebrate his screen career with the display of costumes, including the Joker suit from The Dark Knight (2008), and the iconic shirts of Ennis del Mar and Jack Twist from Brokeback Mountain (2005).
